What to do in Denver when you need a break-

I know we're all here for the bridge. However, even the most devoted bridge player needs time off now and then. Denver offers numerous outlets for these moments.

Denver is a major cultural center for the area. There are many museums and art galleries, and Denver is home to the Colorado Symphony, Colorado Ballet, and the Performing Arts Complex.

Denver is a sports and recreation center. We have sports teams, such as the Colorado Rockies Baseball team, Denver Nuggets, the Denver Broncos, and the Colorado Rapids There are bike paths throughout the city, and walking and bus tours.

There are shopping areas within the city that boast of upscale and unusual stores. There's also an antiques row on South Broadway.

Denver is also a jumping off point for the mountains, and there are places within a day's drive of Denver where you can enjoy a diverse number of activities, such as hot air ballooning, mountain biking, mountain climbing, gambling, and horseback riding.

GREAT TRUTHS

In my many years I have come to a conclusion that one useless man is a shame, two is a law firm and three or more is a congress - John Adams

2. If you don't read the newspaper you are uninformed, if you do read the newspaper you are misinformed. - Mark Twain

3. Suppose you were an idiot. And suppose you were a member of Congress. But then I repeat myself. - Mark Twain

4. I contend that for a nation to try to tax itself into prosperity is like a man standing in a bucket and trying to lift himself up by the handle. - Winston Churchill

MORE GREAT TRUTHS

5. A government which robs Peter to pay Paul can always depend on the support of Paul. - George Bernard Shaw
6. A liberal is someone who feels a great debt to his fellow man, which debt he proposes to pay off with your money.
- G. Gordon Liddy
7. Democracy must be something more than two wolves and a sheep voting on what to have for dinner. - James Bovard, Civil

Libertarian (1994)

8. Foreign aid might be defined as a transfer of money from poor people in rich countries to rich people in poor countries.
- Douglas Casey, Classmate of Bill Clinton at Georgetown University
9. Giving money and power to government is like giving whiskey and car keys to teenage boys. - P.J. O'Rourke, Civil Libertarian

Last night as I left the bridge tournament, I desperately gave myself a personal TSA pat down. I was looking for my keys. They were not in my pockets. I realized I must have left them in the car. Frantically, I headed for the parking garage. My wife scolds me for leaving the keys in the ignition. My theory is the ignition is the best place not to lose them. Her theory is that the car will be stolen. As I burst through the door, I realized her theory was right. The parking garage was empty.

I immediately called the police. Then I made the most difficult call of all, "Honey," I stammered; I always call her "honey" in times like these. "I left my keys in the car, and it has been stolen."

There was a period of silence. I thought the call had been dropped, but then I heard her voice. "Idiot", she barked, "I dropped you off!" Now it was my time to be silent. Embarrassed, I said, "Well, come and get me." She retorted, "I will, as soon as I convince this policeman I have not stolen your car."

Goodwill Day

Today, like each Thursday of a D17 Regional, we celebrate Goodwill Day. The Goodwill Committee welcomes you and hopes you enjoy your stay in Denver. Please remember to pick up your red wrist band at the Registration desk.

The ACBL Goodwill Committee slogan is, "It is nice to be important but more important to be nice." District 17 appointed our local tournament Chair, Maxine Divine, to the District 17 Goodwill Committee in 2011.

Please take note of some of the small ways in which you can do your part to make the tournament a pleasant experience for all of our players. Good luck at the bridge table!
