Today's Speakers

Theri Andino enjoys playing Bridge with her partners at tournaments across the country, but is especially fond of teaching Bridge to groups and individuals. She loves seeing the light come on in a student's eyes when this whole Bridge thing (or some concept) "clicks." She lives in the DC area. Theri will speak today about Making Inferences at 12:15 in the Big Thompson Room.

Anita Heitler is one of Denver's top players. She loves teaching the game of bridge and has taught all over Denver. Anita plays in tournaments with her husband, Don. Today she will be speaking at 6:15 about Inverted Minor Suit Responses.

Enjoy this chance to hear these fine speakers.

Youth and Juniors who are ACBL members in good standing are eligible for a $6 discount per session. Must be 25 or younger and not playing for hire.

FREE PARKING

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

Cell phones

The use of electronic devices is strictly forbidden in the playing area.

Grandma Puzzle: Not wanting to be embarrassed by revealing her age on her birthday, Grandma instead told the grandkids that if they multiplied her age in five years by five, then multiplied her age in six years by six, and added the two totals together, they would get the number that is 12 times her current age. When she saw the large wax forest fire atop her birthday cake, Grandma knew they had figured it out. How old is she?
