Today's Speakers

Jan Janitschke is going to share some insights during a rare presentation for us today in the Big Thompson room in the lower level at 12:15. Jan's topic is Bidding over Weak 2's.

Jan started playing bridge in high school when a friend from the chess club talked him into trying the game. He and his brother Craig started to compete locally when they were 17 and 13. Jan has played with Barry Crane, Dick Reed and Mike Smolen. He has won four national events. My favorite question Jan asks is "Where is the hand you had during the bidding?" Jan is always happy to help bridge players with questions about the game.

Robert Hartman is the Chief Operating Officer of the ACBL. You can read his biography in the Friday Bulletin. He will hold a Q&A with the CEO session this evening at 6:15.

FREE PARKING

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

Cell phones

The use of electronic devices is strictly forbidden in the playing area.

Daily Bulletins and results are at www.denverbridge.com

From "The Prairie Home Companion" radio show with Garrison Keilor:

Sad to say, many years into their old age, Olee is dying. With only a few days to live, he is lying upstairs in the bedroom. Downstairs in the kitchen, Lena has been baking cookies and pies and pastries all day and has placed them on the kitchen table..

The delicious aroma wafts upstairs and arouses Olee. Summoning his remaining few ounces of strength, he crawls down the stairs into the kitchen and across the floor and lifts his hand upward toward the table to grab a pastry. He thinks perhaps it could be the last taste he will have of his loving wife's wonderful cooking, and that it will bring comfort to his soul..

Whereupon Lena slaps his wrist and says," No, OLee, You know these are for the funeral."

Colorado Springs is known for its conservatism. Recently the Colorado Springs City Council commissioned Ball Brothers, one of the top aeronautical engineering firms in the nation, to design an airplane especially for use by city officials on official city business. When it was time for the inaugural flight, the plane wouldn't fly. It had two right wings.

Overheard at the 1992 ACBL Winter nationals held in Toronto, Ontario:

Q "What's the definition of a small slam?"

A "Ten tricks with an American on lead."

WHY SOME ATHLETES CAN'T HAVE REAL JOBS...

Senior basketball player at the University of Pittsburgh: "I'm going to graduate on time, no matter how long it takes." (now that is beautiful)

Frank Layden, Utah Jazz president, on a former player: "I told him, 'Son, what is it with you? Is it ignorance or apathy?' He said, 'Coach, I don't know and I don't care.'"

Shelby Metcalf, basketball coach at Texas A&M, recounting what he told a player who received four F's and one D: "Son, looks to me like you're spending too much time on one subject."

Amarillo High School and Oiler coach Bum Phillips when asked by Bob Costas why he takes his wife on all the road trips, Phillips responded: "Because she is too ugly to kiss good-bye."

Stu Grimson, Chicago Blackhawks left wing, explaining why he keeps a color photo of himself above his locker: "That's so when I forget how to spell my name, I can still find my clothes."

Lou Duva, veteran boxing trainer, on the Spartan training regime of heavyweight Andrew Golota: "He's a guy who gets up at six o'clock in the morning regardless of what time it is."

Chuck Nevitt, North Carolina State basketball player, explaining to Coach Jim Valvano why he appeared nervous at practice: "My sister's expecting a baby, and I don't know if I'm going to be an uncle or an aunt."

All puns intended ...

1. Two antennas met on a roof, fell in love and got married. The ceremony wasn't much, but the reception was excellent.
2. A jumper cable walks into a bar. The bartender says, "I'll serve you, but don't start anything."
3. Two peanuts walk into a bar, and one was a salted.
5. A man walks into a bar with a slab of asphalt under his arm, and says: "A beer please, and one for the road."
6. Two cannibals are eating a clown. One says to the other: "Does this taste funny to you?"
7. "Doc, I can't stop singing The Green, Green Grass of Home."
 "That sounds like Tom Jones Syndrome."
 "Is it common?"
 "Well, It's Not Unusual."
9. An invisible man marries an invisible woman. The kids were nothing to look at either.
11. I went to buy some camouflage trousers the other day, but I couldn't find any.
12. A man woke up in a hospital after a serious accident. He shouted, "Doctor, doctor, I can't feel my legs!" The doctor replied, "I know, I amputated your arms!"
13. I went to a seafood disco last week ... and pulled a mussel.
14. What do you call a fish with no eyes? A fsh.
15. Two fish swim into a concrete wall. The one turns to the other and says, "Dam!"
16. Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly, so they lit a fire in the craft. Not surprisingly it sank, proving once again that you can't have your kayak and heat it too.

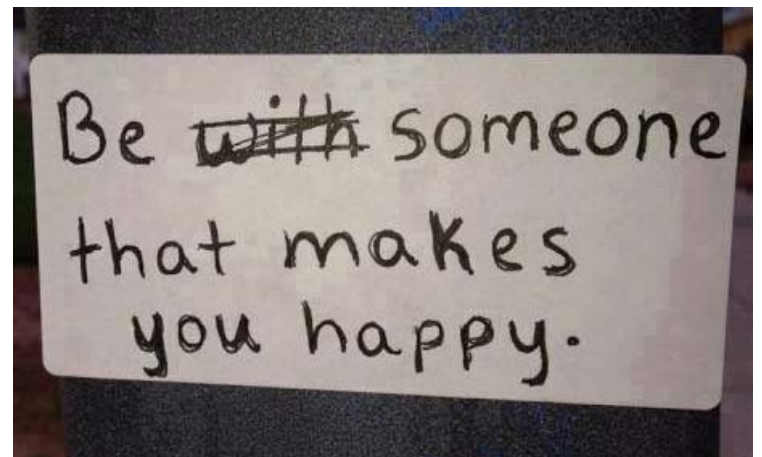

17. A group of chess enthusiasts checked into a hotel, and were standing in the lobby discussing their recent tournament victories. After about an hour, the manager came out of the office, and asked them to disperse. "But why," they asked, as they moved off. "Because," he said. "I can't stand chess-nuts boasting in an open foyer."

18. A woman has twins, and gives them up for adoption. One of them goes to a family in Egypt, and is named 'Amahl.' The other goes to a family in Spain; they name him 'Juan.' Years later, Juan sends a picture of himself to his birth mother. Upon receiving the picture, she tells her husband that she wishes she also had a picture of Amahl. Her husband responds, "They're twins! If you've seen Juan, you've seen Amahl."

19. Mahatma Gandhi, as you know, walked barefoot most of the time, which produced an impressive set of calluses on his feet. He also ate very little, which made him rather frail and with his odd diet, he suffered from bad breath. This made him (oh, man, this is so bad, it's good) ... a super-calloused fragile mystic hexed by halitosis.

20. A dwarf, who was a mystic, escaped from jail. The call went out that there was a small medium at large.

21. And finally, there was the person who sent twenty different puns to his friends, with the hope that at least ten of the puns would make them laugh. No pun in ten did.

From "The Prairie Home Companion" radio show with Garrison Keilor come a hundred Olee and Lena jokes. Olee and Lena are a middle-aged Scandinavian-American couple living in a small town in Minnesota.

On the first Saturday of November they are in the midst of their routine of sitting at the kitchen table after breakfast, finishing their coffee and reading the local newspaper while listening to the local radio station. The announcer gives the weather report. "Big snowstorm expected later today. To help the town snow plow operators, please park only on the NORTH side of the street." So, Olee tells Lena, "I'll do it this time." And he goes and parks the car on the north side of the street.

A week later by coiwinkadink, Olee and Lena again are sitting at the breakfast table, drinking coffee, reading the paper and listening to the radio. Another snow storm is predicted. "Be sure to park on the North side to help the snow plows," says the voice on the radio. This time Lena tells Olee, "It's my turn. I'll do it." And she goes and parks the car on the north side.

The third Saturday is clear weather. But, the fourth Saturday, yet another winter snowstorm is on its way and the radio announcer reminds listeners to park on the north side of the street. Olee tells Lena, "I think it's your turn, I started on the odd Saturdays, the first and the third, and you do the second and fourth." Lena protests, "But, Olee there was no snow last Saturday, that it would make it your turn." They discuss the point of a couple of minutes and finally Olee relents, "Yeah, I guess you're right, Lena. But, you know just this one time, I bet it would be okay to leave it in the garage."
