Today's Speakers

Curt Soloff Soloff is a familiar face in the Denver area as a player, teacher, and director at the Castle Rock club. Curt believes in a "back to basics" approach in teaching others. Curt will speak today in the Big Thompson room in the lower level at 12:15. Jan's topic is Tactical Bids & Sweet Little Lies.

Max Aeschbacher is a Math professor and department chair at Utah Valley University in Salt Lake City who moonlights as a professional Bridge player and teacher. He won the 0-5000 Spingold Knockout Teams at the Atlanta NABC. Max will be talking today at 6:15. His topic is Alert! (Alerts, Etiquette and Laws). This is an important but often misunderstood part of our game. Come learn!

FREE PARKING

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

Cell phones

The use of electronic devices is strictly forbidden in the playing area.

Interesting facts about Colorado:

- 1- "Beulah red" is the name of the red marble that gives the Colorado State Capitol its distinctive splendor. All of the "Beulah red" marble in the world went into the Capitol, it cannot be replaced, at any price..... (It was found near the town of Beulah, CO)
- 2- Colorado is the only state in history to turn down the Olympics.
- 3- The world's largest flat-top mountain is in Grand Mesa (near Grand Junction, CO)
- 4- Denver lays claim to the invention of the cheeseburger. The trademark for the name cheeseburger was awarded in 1935 to Louis Ballast.
- 5- The United States federal government owns more than 1/3 of the land in Colorado.
- 6- Colorado contains 75% of the land in the US with an altitude over 10,000 feet. (54 peaks over 14,000 feet, and a whole lot more in the 11, 12, 13,000 foot range).
- 7- Colfax Avenue in Denver is the longest continuous street in America.
- 8- The Dwight Eisenhower Memorial Tunnel between Clear Creek & Summit counties is the highest auto tunnel in the world.
- 9- Leadville is the highest incorporated city in the United States at 10,430 feet elevation.
- 10- Fountain has the distinction of being the United States millennium city because it best symbolizes the overall composition of America.
- 11- Dove Creek is the "Pinto Bean" capitol of the world. (Also, try the Anasazi Beans from Dove Creek--they are a sweeter bean and faster cooking--said to be grown by the Ancients in that area.)

- 18- Colorado is the only U.S. state that lies entirely above 3,281 feet in elevation. The point where the Arkansas River flows out of Yuma County, Colorado, and into Cheyenne County, Kansas, is the lowest point in Colorado at 3,317 feet elevation.
- 19- Despite its mountainous terrain, Colorado is relatively quiet seismically. The U.S. National Earthquake Information Center is located in Golden.
- 20- Colorado has the only Canyon in the world with water coming out each end. Unaweep Canyon.
- 21- Boulder (the greater Republic of) has more Master Sommeliers per capita than any other city, including San Francisco and New York. (I had to look up the word Sommeliers - - wine steward, the person in a restaurant, club, etc., that is responsible for serving the wines, especially with French cuisine. But the other definition also applies to Colorado: person in charge of pack animals - we have lots of those packing into the high mountains with llamas, mules, horses, etc.)
